

CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT.

"Wock o' Bages."

"Wock o' Bages, keft for me!"
Through the house the words are Uttered by a lisping tongue.
Listen, 'tis our darling singing—
"Wock o' Bages, keft for me, 'Et me hide myse'f in thee."
Papa in his study writing, As he hears the sweet refrain, Pauses in his work to listen;— Waits to catch the words again:—
"Wock o' Bages, keft for me,
'Et me hide myse'f in thee."
"Wock o' Bages, keft for me!"
And the voice is soft and low,
And we bend to catch the meaning, For the breath comes hard and slow.
"Wock o' Bages, keft for me,
'Et me hide myse'f in thee."
In a darkened room he lies, Yet the same sweet song is singing, And to our breaking hearts Peace and resignation bringing.
"Wock o' Bages, keft for me,
'Et me hide myse'f in thee."
"Wock o' Bages keft for me."
"Mama, sing it,—you know how,— Charlie's-dying-mama-darling,— Won't you-sing it-for-him-now!"
"Wock-o'-Bages,—keft-for-me—
'Et-me-hide-myse'f-in—thee."
Rock of Ages cleft for me;
'Tis a mother sings it now, Death has marked her precious baby,
And the damp is on his brow.
"Rock of Ages cleft for me, Let me hide myself in thee."
"Let me hide myself in Thee."
Thou who hast thee winepress trod; Spare me yet this agony, He is all we have O God!
Father, must we drink the cup?
Must we give our darling up?
Wock o' Bages!—and our baby Sang the rest to Christ alone, As the angels tenderly Bore him to the great white throne.
"Wock o' Bages, keft for me!"
And he hid himself in Thee.—SEL.

DEAR EDITOR:—If but nine years old, I must correct the Editor in saying that I am a girl instead of a little man, as you call me. Please correct. I go to the G. B. Sabbath school as the Brethren have none near by. My pa and ma and sister Ida belong to the Brethren church. Good bye till I come again.

IRVA STUTSMAN.

Elkart, Ind.

DEAR EDITOR:—I have not written for the paper for a long time. I am eight years old. My studies are Spelling, Reading, and Arithmetic. I go to Sunday school at Louisville: Mary Keim is my teacher and I like her very much. I will enclose 10 ct. which will do for me and Norah Fockler. I love to read the little letters from the girls and boys and so I thought I would write one too. I will close for this time. Yours truly, MINNIE RUPERT.

Louisville, Ohio.

DEAR EDITOR:—I hear that you were at the Children's meeting at Louisville. I am sorry I could not be there with you. I will tell you what I study in school. I read in the Fourth Reader and Grammar, and Arithmetic and Geography. I was at the Children's meeting last Sunday at Good-hope church. I will tell you what we sung;

A little heart O Lord, may love thee, Little minds may learn thy way; Little hands and feet may serve thee Little voices sing thy praise.
Cho:—Holy Jesus come and bless us, While this hymn we raise.
The preacher said it was good. I am eight years old. I live at Middle Branch, Ohio.

NORAH B. FOKLER.

DEAR EDITOR:—As it is a long time since I have written for the children's department, I thought I would write a few lines again. I am ten years old; I am in the Fifth Reader, and I study Spelling, Arithmetic, and Geography.
I like to go to school, but school is out.
I was at the Convention and the Children's meeting. I enjoyed it very much. I wish they would have another one before long. Bertha Hang plays the organ for the Sunday school and for church. She plays very good. I remember Mr. Mason about the mousetrap that he brought in. I will try and keep out of the trap. I will close for this time. I will enclose ten cts. for the Missionary Fund.

ELLA HOOVER.

Louisville, Ohio.

DEAR EDITOR:—I thought I would write for the paper again and tell the little folks what we are doing now adays. We are having very hot weather here this summer.

I go to Sabbath school now. It is at 9 A. M. I love to go to Sabbath school where I can learn more of Jesus. We have no very large school but they all seem to take an interest in the good work. There is eight of us in the Bible Class. Mr. W. F. Rippetto is our teacher; we like him very much.

Pa is speaking of moving to Texas in the spring, if Providence permits.
It may be that I will be in Texas the next time I write. I will write and tell how I like it. I will close by asking a question. How long did Noah live after the flood?

L. JANE HARTMAN.

Scotts Ford, Va.

DEAR EDITOR:—As I like to read the EVANGELIST, I thought I would write a letter for it. The 2nd of July our school closed with a picnic and we all enjoyed ourselves. We had ice-cream, lemonade and a very nice dinner.
Our teacher's name is Miss Lillie Clemmer. She was a good teacher and taught our school last winter and this summer.

I am taking music lessons now and like it very much, my sister is taking too. I am taking my second term.

My father's business is bee-culture, and he has a nice lot of bees, from which we have taken out about 1000 lbs of honey. I like honey pretty well, but don't like the bees very well. He has built a small screen house so he can work in there. This has been a very good season for honey. I will close by asking a question, What two chapters in the Bible are alike?

MAUD PUTERBAUGH.

Lanark, Ill.

DEAR CHILDREN:—It is a long time since I wrote any thing for you. You are doing so well that I think it is hardly worth my while, to write. A number of our faithful contributors begin to write real nice letters, and to put in the points of punctuation in professional style.
When they start their letters they put two lines under
"DEAR EDITOR" which means, print in small caps, and then they add a colon and a dash at the end too, like this, — The letter is then commenced, and they put in the commas and periods, about right. They tell how to do this by looking at the letters that are printed—and sometimes they can tell where there are mistakes too. We can all soon learn where to put the , and the ; and the :
and the ? and ! and the " "
and the . if we watch how they are printed.

Then again when we commence a sentence we will use a capital letter every time, like this—Irva Stutsman is a dear little girl instead of a little man. See we clap in a period at the end of that because that is all we will say about her now. Now we will say something about another person and we will start in with a new paragraph. The way we do that is to commence a new line about the middle of the page when we write, like this:

We will go down to Louisville again some of these times and then we hope to see Norah B. Fockler and all the other dear little writers and children over there.
That will be a good time we know. Now here we will make another paragraph :

We still have two letters left. We do not use them all this week for fear we might not have any next week. They are real nice ones, and one was written by Jennie M. Bauman, of Carleton, Neb., and the other by Jessie Brower of North Manchester, Ind. Well wishes to all.

WITHOUT SUFFERING
OPIUM.

Users of Opium, are you aware that Dr. Leslie E. Keeley's "DOUBLE CHLORIDE OF GOLD" will cure the worst case of this terrible habit in from three to five weeks (at home) without suffering. Unlike other so-called "painless" antidotes, it contains not one particle of opium, or any of its preparations, and yet the patient, while rapidly reducing his morphine down to nothing, is able to attend to his ordinary business and enjoys life as he has not done since beginning the Opium or Morphine habit. Send for Free Circular, or for Dr. Leslie E. Keeley's new work, "Opium: Its Use, Abuse and Cure," sent free on application. It is the most complete and comprehensive work ever published on the subject, and gives full instructions for self cure at home. Address, or call on,

JOHN C. EVANS, Secretary, Mo., writes: "I read up and found that a Washer was wanted in a large family than any Washer and Washer that ever was put on any farm with less than 10 much labor of man as this Washer takes of the women, and save as much money it does and cost no more. I could sell one at every farm, if they had to take the Washer from under their wife and babies to pay for it." JOHN R. DOUGLASS, Jr., Secretary, Mo., writes: "You ask what I think of the Washer. I don't let me say. It is the best machine ever invented by man. I have just as good dishes on Monday as on any other day. If you wish, you can see it at my house for 10
